Unit 5 Reading

1 Read the blog posts. Which two cities does Tim visit?

_____ and _____

Summer in the city!

Every summer, I visit my cousin, Eric, in New York. I usually fly to JFK airport and take a bus to his apartment. New York is an amazing city. It's more exciting than Toronto, my hometown.

Saturday, 15th July, 11.20 a.m.

Eric and I are sailing on a ferry to Liberty Island. You can climb up the Statue of Liberty. The views are awesome!

Tuesday, 18th July, 08.10 p.m.

We're in Times Square, in the city centre. It's very noisy and busy! We always have pizza in Times Square. New York has the most delicious pizza in the world! We take the underground home because it is faster than a taxi.

Friday, 21st July, 07.30 a.m.

Today, we're taking a train to Boston to visit my Uncle Luke. It's slower than the plane, but it's more comfortable.

Boston is a historic city. It has a lot of famous sights, like the Duckling sculptures in Boston Public Garden.

The food is good, too, especially the 'clam chowder' soup. You can also take a Duck Tour around the city. This 'car-boat' goes on the road and in the river!

What does he have for breakfast on weekdays?

juice and toast

- Where does he have lunch on weekdays?

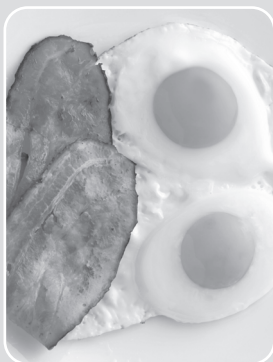

- What time does he have breakfast on Saturdays?

- What does he have for dinner on Saturdays?

Hi! This week's post is about food.

On weekdays, I have juice and toast for breakfast. There's a break at school at 12.00 p.m. I usually have crisps. Not very healthy – sorry! I have lunch at home with my mum because I don't like the food at school. We have meat or fish with vegetables. In the evening, we often have pasta.

On Saturdays, I have breakfast at 11.30 a.m. because I get up late. My brother sometimes cooks eggs and bacon. I don't like bacon, so I never have any. In the evening, we always have pizza and ice cream. Yum!

3 Complete Paula's blog post with the words in the box.
